

Dr. Greg J. Duncan

University of California at Irvine

Dr. Duncan has more than 30 years of experience investigating issues of family income inequality, poverty, and child well-being.

Don't miss your chance to hear this distinguished professor and author speak at Mizzou!

ECONOMICS
SEMINAR

Tuesday, April 11, 3:30-4:30pm

MU Student Center, Room 2501

“Persistence and Fadeout in the Impacts of Child and Adolescent Interventions”

PUBLIC
LECTURE

Wednesday, April 12, 1:30-2:30pm

Tate Hall, Room 22

“Restoring Opportunity: The Crisis of Inequality and the Challenge for American Education”

METHODS
SEMINAR

Thursday, April 13, 1:30-2:30pm

MU Student Center, Room 2501

“Risky Business: Correlation and Causation in Longitudinal Studies of Skill Development”

CAMPUS SPONSORS:

Office of the Provost | Truman School of Public Affairs | Department of Economics
Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis | Department of Personal Finance Planning
School of Social Work | Department of Sociology | Department of Women’s and Gender Studies